Bantam Classics. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Mass Market Paperback. 560 pages. Dimensions: 8.4in. x 5.8in. x 0.7in. In the marshy mists of a village churchyard, a tiny orphan boy named Pip is suddenly terrified by a shivering, limping convict on the run. Years later, a supremely arrogant young Pip boards the coach to London where, by the grace of a mysterious benefactor, he will join the ranks of the idle rich and become a gentleman. Finally, in the luminous mists of the village at evening, Pip the man meets Estella, his dazzlingly beautiful tormentor, in a ruined garden--and lays to rest all the heartaches and illusions that his great expectations have brought upon him. Dickens biographer, Edgar H. Johnson, has said that--except for the author's last-minute tampering with his original ending--Great Expectations is the most perfectly constructed and perfectly written of all Dickens works. In John Irving's Introduction to this edition, the novelist takes the view that Dickens revised ending is far more that mirror of the quality of trust in the novel as a whole. Both versions of the ending are printed here. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Mass Market Paperback.
