Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Legends of the Metasphere is a collection of speculative fiction and mythic adventures. The stories are populated with a phantasmagoria of remarkable beings from the past, present, and future ? and with very realistic men and women, whose ventures into the metasphere transform them into heroes and heroines of truly mythic stature. The first story in the anthology is The Metamorph, which portrays life after death in terms as believable as good science fiction. Here are some comments which readers sent to the author: It s the finest and most succinct everlasting love story that I have ever read. It is also an excellent crash course in religious metaphysics. ? Donald Glick, planetary oncologist To Joseph Kerrick, master performer of the world to be! Metamorph : what a fantastic concept ? and so ably achieved. I worried at first after Melissa died whether or not you would be able to suspend the disbelief ; but you did. ? Edwin Massey, poet The Second story is a retelling of the timeless legend of Parsifal and the Holy Grail. The author was especially inspired by Richard Wagner s operatic version. Here are comments from a man named Peter, who went to see the opera for the first time: It s just with extreme luck that I found your Parsifal story on the Internet. Your portrayal of the events was so moving that I felt compelled to send this email to thank you for your work. The opera was resplendently magnificent! But I must admit that I like your story better than Wagner s. Your elaboration of the seduction scenes in particular are more poetic and beautiful than his. The third...
