Four years ago, when the new church was dedicated, Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Packard contributed $300 for new Hymnals, which have now been introduced. Mrs. Packard is the chorister and Mr. Packard has been organist for twenty years. The chorus choir of forty voices is a popular feature of the church, and there is always a waiting list of applicants for membership. The ladies wear white waists and black skirts, and the men dress in black, with uniform black tie. The effect is similar to that of the surpliced choir. At the vesper services an auxiliary choir of seventy voices occupies a place in another gallery. The pastor s address presented interesting facts connected with the making of the Hymnal, and impressed upon the congregation the influence which its spiritual songs would have upon the religious life of the community for the coming quarter century. The vesper services during the winter will illustrate the general theme, the place of song in church worship. The intention is to stimulate the interest of the people in congregational singing. Funeral services over the remains of Bishop Merrill were held at four o clock Monday afternoon at the home of Miss Josephine A. Brown, Keyport, N. J., where his death took place. The Rev. C. S. Lawrence, Pastor of Calvary Church, and the Rev. Joseph Garrison, Pastor of St. John s Church, in that town, were in charge. At Grace Church, Chicago, on Nov. 17, at 10 A....
