Reviews

This ebook will never be effortless to get started on studying but extremely fun to read through. It is actually written in easy phrases and never difficult to understand. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

Sayers, Governor of Texas: Dear Sir: In obedience to an act entitled An Act empowering the Governor of the State of Texas, together with the Commissioner of the General Land Office of said State, to employ four additional clerks, or so many thereof as may be necessary, to tabulate the account in the General Land Office between the State of Texas and the permanent school fund, and providing for the ascertainment of the amount of public domain of tho State of Texas at the time of the adoption of the Constitution of 1876, and what has been done with the same, and showing the present condition of the account between the State of Texas and the permanent school fund growing out of their joint landed interests, and making an appropriation therefor, approved March 2, 1899, I have the honor to submit the following report: To perform the work required, my predecessor, the Hon. George W. Finger, engaged the services of four competent clerks, all of whom were steadily employed from the 20th of March to the 1st of September, 1899, and but one of the number from the date last mentioned, until the 15th of October. During this time they examined each file and each set of field notes surveyed and made on the public domain by authority of law and returned to, and filed in, the General Land Office from the 17th of April, 1876, the date of the adoption...
