He is mourning his father and she her doll. Belonging to different worlds, different realities, briefly their paths converge. The boy grows into a man. Aveer Mohali. Business tycoon at the age of 25. A man who has everything he can possibly desire. For ten years since he was 15, Aveer has fought to keep the company his father has left him. He has been driven by only one demon- work. Now at 25 with both his parents dead, Aveer is alone. But content. He does not know the meaning of loneliness. Until the day Trina walks into his office and his life. And his world splinters into nothingness. And Aveer finds himself obsessed with her. He cannot let her go inspite of the fear he sees in her- a fear which is an echo of his own. Aveer Mohali is prey to an emotion which is larger than him, than his self. No matter how hard he tries he cannot fight it. Her. The girl who cried on her knees for a doll has grown into a complex wary woman riddled with guilt over her brother s death. Trina is grappling with the bleak reality of a paralyzed father, mountain of debts, her guilt and a hostile boss at work. Certainly she has no time for the man who turns her world topsy- turvy. A man who can read her mind. Who begins to remind her that she runs to obsessions. If she gives in to him there can be no escape for her. For slowly he is becoming her obsession. The only course left to her...
