The Delaware Peach Crop. The correspond ent of the Philadelphia Public Ledger, gives hope of a fair average crop--probably 3,000,000 bas kets may go forward. Strawberries will be enormous; and Asparagus is being raised in immense quantities over other years Much difficulty is however felt in marketing, and prices will perhaps rule low. P. O. Rulings--vrith a Crooked Ruler. And now our poor publisher is in a quandary. He has to prepay postage to Holland, Belgium, Australia, and South America, in which distant places he has a fair list of subscribers. This has been 72 cents each per year. Now the ruler decides this is wrong, and 96 cents is the legal fare. He collects from his subscribers in advance, resting on the good faith of his respected Uncle at Washington, and of course will rather go to sleep and...
