Stomach and Liver Tieose, with Tic Douloureux--ture arrested by falling in 10ri, and c. A gentleman, about thirty-seven years of age, was advised to try the water-curt; by a learned physician at Cheltenham. He had been many years in India, where the climate, joined with the usual mode of living there, had produced the diseased states above mentioned. He had a completely withered look, the skin being deeply wrinkled, sallow, and without any appearance of blood; the liver was enlarged, with all the ordinary symptoms of long-standing indigestion; added to these, he suffered from severe tic After going through a carefully graduated system of treatment for a few weeks, he was able to bear water at the coldest temperature. In six weeks his face was much fuller, with the tinge of...
