This portion of the survey embraces a strip of country extending in a northeasterly and southwesterly direction, and over 300 miles in length. I cannot better introduce the few observations it is possible to make on the geology, than by quoting the general description of the section given in Captain Pope s report: The space between the eastern base of the Staked Plain and the Red river, at the parallel of 34, is occupied by that portion of northern Texas drained by the tributaries of the Colorado, the Brazos, the Trinity, and the Eed rivers. With rapidly-increasing advantages as you proceed eastward from the Llano Estacado, this region is well timbered, well watered, and possessed of a soil of extreme fertility, capable of sustaining a dense population. The entire country is so gently undulating in its surface, and presents such an...
