The Bible tells us that our god is a jealous god and that we will have no other gods before him. The Bible also tells of pagan gods in other cultures. The world in which pagan gods are worshipped doesn't end there. Furthermore, the world of paganism doesn't end in Europe with the official recognition of Christianity at the time of Roman Emperor Constantine I about AD 337. The Christian church continues to struggle not only against paganism throughout Europe but also against itself, with the Catholic versus the Orthodox Church, each considering the other heretical. This is the story of the Northern Crusade, the crusade against the final pagan stronghold in Europe. Unlike how the tale of the other crusades might be told, this tale is viewed the way it might be seen, not by men, but by the pagan gods, had they been real. Pagan and Christian Europe are on a collision course. The pagans seek to continue their peaceful existence, but the Christian knights thirst for power and land. How...
