The ArmyActive, Guard and Reserve exists to protect our Nation from our enemies, defend our vital national interests and provide support to civil authorities in response to domestic emergencies. Our mission is to provide ready forces and land force capabilities to the Combatant Commanders in support of the National Security Strategy, the National Defense Strategy and the National Military Strategy. While what the Army does for the Nation is enduring, how we do it must adapt to meet the changing world security environment. We are in an era of persistent conflict which, when combined with our on-going global engagements, requires us to rebalance our capabilities. We do this remembering that Soldiers, and the Families who support them, are the strength and centerpiece of the Army. And, while our Nation has many strengths, in time of war, Americas Army is The Strength of the Nation. Our Nation has been at war for over six years. Our ArmyActive, Guard and Reserve has been a leader in this war and has been fully engaged in Iraq, Afghanistan, and defending the homeland. We also have provided support, most notably by the Army National Guard and Army Reserve, to civil authorities during domestic emergencies. Today, of the Nations nearly one million Soldiers, almost 600, 000 are serving on active duty and over 250, 000 are deployed to nearly 80 countries worldwide. We live in a world where global terrorism and extremist ideologies threaten our safety and our freedom. As we look to the future, we believe the coming decades are likely to be ones of persistent conflict protracted confrontation among state, non-state, and individual actors who use violence to achieve their political and ideological ends. In...
